

ROYAL MANSOUR
MARRAKECH

The Royal Mansour Marrakech publishes its first children's book: Lila is Looking for Mansour!

The hotel Directors wanted to create something special for younger guests, to make their visits even more thrilling, magical and full of discovery. The picture book was created in collaboration with the writer Colombe Schneck and the illustrator Delphine Perret.

Lila is a little girl who is full of questions. Who is Mansour, she wonders? Is it a creature? A child? An idea that makes you grow? Head butler Mohamed guides Lila in her quest to find out more... This charming story, as told by Colombe Schneck, and illustrated by Delphine Perret, invites junior guests to explore the hotel's passageways and secrets through the eyes of an endearingly mischievous and curious little girl.

The colorful storybook is easy to read, with text in both French and English. It will be available to read for children of all ages staying at the Royal Mansour Marrakech, and on sale in the hotel boutique.

The authors

Colombe Schneck is a writer, journalist and documentary filmmaker. She has worked as an editor for Editions Gallimard and Christian Dior, collating the Lady anthology, for which ten French and American writers mused around the subject of the Lady Dior handbag. She won the Institut Français's Stendhal Missions award for a research trip to Santa Cruz de la Sierra in Bolivia in 2013, and has been writer in residence at the Villa Medici in Rome. During 15 years of television work, she has presented programmes on France 5, Canal + and I Télé.

Delphine Perret is an author and illustrator, winner of the Domaine de Manville Prize, and recent recipient of the Pépites Prize at the Montreuil Children's Book Fair, as voted for by France Télévisions judges. She has illustrated books including: Histoire Pour Endormir ses Parents (Bedtime Story for Parents), Lettres à Pattes et à Poils (Letters with Paws and Fur), Il Etait Mille Fois (Once Upon a Thousand Times), Signes - L'intégrale (Complete Illustrated Sign Language), and Le Beau Selon Ninon (Beauty According to Ninon).
