SKIN FITNESS

LPG ENDERMOLOGIE TECHNIQUE

Endermologie is a non-invasive treatment for the face and body that stimulates delicately the skin to reactivate the cellular activity. Recognized for its draining and anti-cellulite effect, this massage is realised by the LPG latest generation machine. The mechanical cellular stimulation technique is used in treatments and results in visible slimming, cellulite reduction and anti-ageing. A real metamorphosis of your skin to be discovered with our treatment selection.

BODY GLOBAL TREATMENT

The Body Endermologie® technique targets and slims the areas that need it most by stimulating the slimming cells. The mechanical action of the treatment will boost circulatory exchanges, smooth appearance of cellulite, tone the skin and resculpt the body. After a complete diagnosis, you will be provided a personal "Endermowear" and your therapist will target the zones of the body to be worked.

45 MIN 1 200 MAD

FACIAL GLOBAL TREATMENT

The technology will deeply re-densify the skin to erase signs of time, redraw the outlines of the face, clarify the skin tone, fill lines and wrinkles from the inside. After a precise diagnosis, your therapist will design your bespoke program.
